Emboss Vellum with the Lazy Daisy embossing folder

Tips:

Emboss Stampin' Up! vellum with any embossing folder. I used the new Lazy Daisy folder available to customers starting 3-3-26 in the March Online Exclusive brochure.

Experiment by layering the embossed vellum over a variety of colors!

Use adhesive behind a decorative element, like the flowers (left) or the Happy Easter circle (right).

Cut designer paper to fit in your embossing folder and emboss for a really interesting look!!

You can sand it (daisy card on left), or add ink (Stone & Vine folder on right)

Emboss on Two-Tone cardstock

Tips:

After embossing on Two-Tone Cardstock, I love using a sanding block to remove some of the color and expose the white core.

Ink & Sand your embossed images

TIPS:

Experiment with dragging your ink pad across embossed paper. Notice the sample on the left, you can ink the embossed or debossed side.

Sanding: use a Sanding Block to take the color off of Two Tone Cardstock like the ladybug sample.
